World Waveski Surfing Association Constitution

17.3 The Adaptive Waveski coordinator assists with contemporary adaptive waveski interpretation and acts as the delegate on behalf of the WWSA to educate other disciplines as requested and required.

18. Duties of the Equity Coordinator

18.1 The Equity Coordinator is to ensure that all participants both current and future are enabled to participate equally in the sport of waveski surfing without prejudice.

18.2 This position also acts as the resource and advisor for all events managed and undertaken by the WWSA including both in water and out of water events which includes surf events and meetings.

19. Finances and Income, Property and Trustees

19.1 The financial year shall be from the 1st January to the 31st of December.

19.2 No money shall be withdrawn unless such withdrawal has been approved by the Executive.

19.3 The income and property of the Association when so ever derived shall be applied solely towards the promotion of its objects as set forth in these Rules and no portion thereof shall be paid or transferred directly or indirectly by way of dividend, bonus or otherwise howsoever to its members provided that nothing herein shall prevent the payment in good faith or remuneration to any officer or servant of the Association for services actively rendered to the Association.

19.4 Unless otherwise determined, the control and management of the Association shall be vested in the Committee consisting of up to 13 Office Bearers noting however that Vice Presidents can other substantive positions; thus will be deemed to be the Trustees of the Association, and any property real and personal belonging to the Association shall vest in the Trustees.

20. Amendments to the Constitution

20.1 The Constitution and by-laws (eg Competition Rule Book, Policies and Standard Operating Procedures as utilized by the Association) may only be altered or amended by resolution passed by a majority of the members of the Association present and voting at a Bi-Annual General Meeting.

Dispensation is afforded to the Association committee outside of the Bi-Annual General Meeting to make decisions regarding the competition rule book, policies and procedures and any other matters to ensure that all changes are undertaken in a timely manner. In the event that changes are made, the Association will seek to communicate and consult with member nation delegates before final changes are made.

20.2 Notice of intention to move the amendment shall be given to the Secretary in writing at least three (3) months prior to the World Waveski Surfing Titles. The Secretary shall give twenty-one (21) days' notice to all members of the Association of the proposed amendments and the convening of the Bi-Annual General Meeting for the purpose of considering the motion. (this does not eliminate the ability of the Association to address issues as described in 20.1).

21. General Matters

21.1 At the close of the Bi-Annual General Meeting, the Secretary shall undertake in writing that copies of the minutes of the meeting will be available, together with Books of Account and Treasurer's Report, to the succeeding Association within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of the Annual General Meeting.

21.2 Copies of the above to be sent to all Delegates from member countries.

22. Disciplining of Committee Members, Member Nation Delegates and Member Nations

22.1 If any member of the Committee, member nation delegate or member nation is charged by another member with refusing or neglecting to comply with a provision or provisions of the Constitution, the member or representative may be summoned to a meeting of the Committee.

22.2 Any such charge shall be in writing and be delivered to the Secretary who shall, as soon as practicable, forward a copy of such charge to the member or representative against whom the charge is made.

22.3 The intention of the Committee to consider a charge against a member or representative shall be stated in the notice convening the meeting and the member or representative charged shall be given at least 28 days' notice of the meeting and be informed by the Secretary that the member or representative charged may submit to the Committee written representations relating to the charge.

22.4 If the member fails to submit a written response within the time allowed, the charge may be dealt with notwithstanding his absence.

22.5 Where the Committee is of the opinion that the member or representative has refused or neglected to comply with a provision or provisions of these rules, the Committee may by resolution expel, suspend (for a period not exceeding six (6) months), or caution the member or representative. Repeat offences may constitute more severe penalties as determined by the Committee.

23. Dissolution of the Association

23.1 The Association may be dissolved at any time by a resolution of majority of the members of the Association voting at a General Meeting of the Association. If the members resolve that the Association shall be dissolved then the Secretary shall cause another General Meeting of the Association to be held to confirm the resolution of the first General Meeting. The Secretary shall by notice to all members of the Association advise them of the date of the second General Meeting, which shall be held within thirty (30) days of the date of the first Meeting.

23.2 If at the second General Meeting majority of the members of the Association present and voting at the General Meeting so resolve the Association shall thereupon be dissolved.

23.3 After payment of all liabilities and debts due by the Association and all expenses incurred in dissolving the Association, all remaining assets of the Association shall be paid to such organizations having the same or similar objects as the Association or such charitable organization as the members shall have decided at the General Meeting dissolving the Association.

Addendum to the constitution January 2023 agreed to by all member nations via email

Resolution: Committee members may continue on with their substantive portfolio from 2022 until 2026 unless they choose otherwise. This decision was carefully considered in lieu of more than 50% of the committee were newly elected or newly appointed to different positions.

It was also acknowledged that the next WWSA Titles are on in July 2024 giving very little time for this committee to achieve expected outcomes in their portfolios and generally the WWSA Committee as a whole.
